My volunteer map

Name

Date

Volunteering = giving time, talent, or energy to help people or community.

1. One skill or strength I already have

2. Who or what could that help? (school, family, community, land, animals)

What I would do	Time, talent, or energy?	Who benefits

4. One thing that might get in the way (transport, shyness, time) and one way around it

Exit ticket — In one sentence: How could volunteering support your well-being or someone else’s?

My experience map (private)

Name

Date

Use school-appropriate examples. You do not have to write about anything painful. Everyday experiences count.

The experience	Skill or strength it built

2. One experience that shaped a preference (how I like to learn, play, or rest)

3. How might that experience change the way I respond when something similar happens again?

4. Optional to share with a partner: one sentence I am willing to say out loud

Exit ticket — Finish: Life experiences can shape our understanding because _____.

Perseverance plan (one hard thing)

Name

Date

The hard thing (school-appropriate)

Support	What this could look like for me this week
Effort
Courage
Commitment (including rest)
Belief I can improve

One person or tool that could help (not “try harder”)

Exit ticket — How could perseverance on this thing support your well-being? (mood, confidence, health, belonging)

Skill-to-contribution match

Name

Date

A skill or knowledge I have	A community need it could help	School or community idea

My realistic try this month (one idea, with when and who I would ask)

How this links to perseverance (what might be awkward at first)

Exit ticket — Complete: I can contribute by _____ because I _____.

My protective-factor card

Name _____ Date _____

Kind	One I already have	How it helps me keep going
Person
Place
Skill
Routine

One protective factor I could strengthen this month (small and realistic)

Exit ticket — Why is “just try harder” a weak plan compared with naming a protective factor?

Relating the pieces

Name

One life experience from this unit or from my year (everyday is enough)

How I practised perseverance (effort, courage, commitment, belief, or a new plan)

A skill I can contribute, or a volunteer idea I still think is realistic

One protective factor I will keep using

Exit ticket — Because of _____, I practised perseverance by _____, and that helped well-being because _____.
