Changes during adolescence

Name _____ Date _____

Change	Physical, thinking, or behaviour?	A supportive response
Needing more sleep
Caring more what friends think
Growth spurt / clothes don't fit
Wanting a closed bedroom door more often

Why is it unkind to rank who “hit puberty” first?

Exit ticket — Name one physical, one thinking, and one behaviour change that can happen in adolescence.

Puberty facts

Name _____ Date _____

Statement	Fact or myth?	Why
Everyone starts puberty at the same age.
Hormones are chemical messengers.
Sweat and skin oil often increase.
You can tell everything about a person from how fast they grow.

Two physical changes I might notice or that a friend might notice (general, not naming a classmate)

Exit ticket — Who is a trusted adult I could ask a puberty question?

Organs and jobs

Name _____ Date _____

Part	Job in your own words
Ovaries
Uterus
Vagina / vulva
Testicles
Penis
Scrotum

What does “capacity for human reproduction” mean in Grade 5 language?

What are we not learning this year (Grade 6 content)?

Exit ticket — Why do we use correct anatomical words instead of slang?

Two signs of capacity

Name _____ Date _____

Process	What happens, in Grade 5 language
Menstruation / a period
Ovulation (one line)
Sperm production / semen

One hygiene or help step (pad, wash, trusted adult, extra clothes) a person might need

Why does everyone in Grade 5 learn both systems?

Exit ticket — What does “sign of reproductive capacity” mean — and what does it not mean?

Practices that support a maturing body

Name _____ Date _____

Practice	What this could look like for me this month
Sleep
Nutritious food / water
Physical activity
Hygiene
Reducing stress
Trusted adult

Exit ticket — How do positive health practices support a healthy reproductive system — in one kid sentence?

Growth wrap

Name _____ Date _____

Puberty is... (one accurate sentence)

Capacity for human reproduction means... (and does not mean...)

One physical, one thinking, and one behaviour change

Two positive health practices I can keep

Exit ticket — How does accurate, respectful knowledge about puberty support well-being?
