Two perspectives

Name _____ Date _____

Scenario A. Sam used the soccer ball at recess. Riley has been waiting and says Sam always hogged it last year. Sam just joined the school this month and did not know there was a rotation.

Person	What they might think / feel	What experience might sit behind that
Sam
Riley

Scenario B. The teacher asks the class to move seats. Kai is glad (talking neighbours). Morgan is upset (liked the quiet corner).

Person	Perspective in one sentence

Exit ticket

Name one personal or environmental factor that can change a perspective.

Rewrite for respect

Name _____ Date _____

Change each blunt line into: I noticed... It affected me... Could you...

Blunt line	Respectful three-part message
You always wreck our group.
Give it back, thief.
That's a stupid idea.

One real situation I might need this for (no names required):

Find a shared understanding

Name _____ Date _____

Scenario. Group poster due Friday. Avery wants lots of drawings. Blake wants mostly text so it is readable from the back. Casey wants to split up and not talk. The teacher said it must be one poster, all names on it.

Avery’s perspective:

Blake’s perspective:

Casey’s perspective:

Our plan (which path: clarify / take turns / third option / pause):
